Dated: 13-08-2018

FLYING TRAINING CIRCULAR No. 1 of 2018

Sub: Familiarization Training for operating different variant of DA42 Series aircraft

As per Diamond Aircraft STMT2016-06-0001-ro dated 30 June 2016, various models of Diamond DA 42 (DA 42 TDI, DA 42 NG and DA 42-VI) aircraft are considered as variants of one type. Differences Training between those variants is not required, only theoretical familiarization for engine in case of transition from one variant to another is required.

So conversion from one variant to another or undergoing training on type variant after passing DGCA exam of any one type is permitted subject to successful completion of the Ground familiarization course for the engine of another variant of the aircraft.

Ground Familiarization certificate, certifying the suitability and proficiency of the candidate to operate on different variant of the engine shall be issued by the AME or FIR(A) holder qualified on type, conducting the familiarization training. Same shall be endorsed in the Pilot log book of the candidate.
